

Adam Luck

E. ajohnluck@gmail.com W. learntechwithluck.wordpress.com

SUPPORTIVE QUALIFICATIONS

- Over eight years teaching experience, most recently in a college preparatory setting
- Strong believer in technology in the classroom as well as cross curricular and interactive teaching
- Highly adept at preparing lesson plans and designing classroom materials with the ability to provide informative and stimulating lessons
- Skilled lecturer and key speaker at a professional development learning community
- Instructed in a Special Education setting
- Published in the Jackson city paper for Civic Engagement at Albion High School

CERTIFICATIONS

- Social Studies (RX)
- History (CC)
- Biology (DA)
- Educational Technology (NP)

EDUCATION

Michigan State University, Lansing, Michigan

Master of Arts in Educational Technology- In Progress

(Expected Dec. 2017)

- Graduate Certificate in Educational Technology
- Graduate Certificate in Online Teaching and Learning

Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan

Social Studies certification

Dec. 2013

Albion College, Albion, Michigan

Double Major: Biology and History, Concentration in Secondary Education

Dec. 2009

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Teacher, Bishop Foley High School

2014 - Present

- Instruct at a college preparatory school teaching: Biology, AP Biology, Anatomy, Honors Anatomy, and Environmental Science
- Create and instruct technology-oriented classes and seminars focusing on cross curricular learning
- Utilize a variety of teaching styles such as: group discussion, lectures, simulations and labs to maximize student interest, participation and comprehension
- Design classroom materials, author lessons and classroom objectives and prepare in-class demonstrations and presentations
- Supervise student retreats, volunteer programs and fund-raising activities
- Coach Science Olympiad, responsible for planning and organizing the program
- Monitor the Medical Science Club an extra-curricular program for students

Adam Luck

E. ajohnluck@gmail.com W. learnwithluck.wordpress.com

Teacher, Hazel Park Advantage & Crossroads 2011 - 2014

- Instructed in an alternative setting teaching Middle School and High School History and Biology
- Trained and assisted in online distance learning classes using e2020
- Facilitated the SIP team to develop goals and statements for the following school year

Teacher, Clara B. Ford Academy 2010 - 2011

- Instructed seven Biology classes and one World History class
- Evaluated At-Risk students to keep them on track towards a high school diploma
- Utilized differentiated instruction to reach as many learners as possible

Substitute Teacher; Oakland and Macomb Counties, Michigan Jan. - June 2010

Student Teacher, Western High School; Parma, Michigan Aug. - Dec. 2009

- Co-taught three United States History classes and two Biology classes
- Worked closely with two mentors to accomplish Michigan Standards for Education through experiments and projects
- Developed an Action Research Project that focused on using writing in a History classroom to promote critical understanding and develop English skills

Student Teacher, Albion High School; Albion, Michigan May - June 2009

- Recognized for teaching by civic involvement in the Jackson Citizen Patriot newspaper
 - Kim Waito... who mentored Luck in the program, said Luck opened her students' eyes to their environment. They learned, she said, but enjoyed themselves at the same time.ⁱ

VOLUNTEER/SERVICE

Board member and Past President, Warren Lion's Club; Warren, Michigan

- Awarded "2011 Outstanding Volunteer" from the City of Warren for community work
- Top collector of fundraiser money for the Lion's White Cane project two years in a row

Volunteer, Warren Parks and Recreation; Warren, Michigan

Volunteer, Habitat for Humanity

ⁱ Sova, J (2009, June 8). Albion High School Students get behind the arts. Jackson Citizen Patriot. Retrieved from http://www.mlive.com/news/jackson/index.ssf/2009/06/albion_students_get_behind_the.html